'WHAT'S LOOKING GOOD' in the Nursery

JULY

This month the summer flowering Erica varieties start to show their vibrant colour. Blooming throughout July into early autumn they certainly liven up summer borders and pots. Daboecia varieties will bloom and continue to flower until a touch of frost. Along with the bright golden, yellow and silver foliage of Calluna vulgaris the nursery is a constant rainbow of colours & textures.

Erica cinerea 'Glencairn'

Erica cinerea 'C D Easson'

Scottish Lucky White Heather

Erica arborea 'Albert's Gold'
